EAST PENN SCHOOL DISTRICT

SECTION: COMMUNITY

TITLE: CITIZEN ADVISORY COMMITTEES

ADOPTED: November 11, 1991

REVISED:

905. CITIZEN ADVISORY COMMITTEES

1. Purpose

The Board recognizes that citizen advisory committees are useful in keeping the Board and administration informed concerning community opinion in the study of specific school issues.

2. Guidelines

The formation of citizen advisory committees to the Board are subject to the following guidelines:

1. In creating a new advisory committee, the Board shall define the scope of the committee's assignment and change.
2. The Board shall appoint members who have interest in and have skills and abilities useful to the committee charge with a preference toward residents.
3. Committee members should represent a wide range of community interests and backgrounds.
4. The Board shall appoint the Board President and Superintendent as ex-officio members of all committees.
5. The Board shall set dates for preliminary and final reports.
6. Meetings of an advisory committee and not meetings of the Board.
7. Committee meetings shall be open to the public.
